Giuseppe	22/08/2016	Adverse Media, ID/V	Summary: Giuseppe Calò was born in Palermo in 1931. In 1954 he killed Pietro Scaletta in order to revenge his father and the same year he became a "man of honour" of Porta Nuova family in 1962, when the old boss Carlo Brandaleone died, he replaced him as the family boss. At the beginning of 1970s he took part in the Provincial Commission as "capomandamento". He supported Totò Riina during the mafia war at the beginning of 1980s and became one of the most loyal allied of "Corleonesi" faction. At the ending of 1970s he went to Rome under the fake name of Mario Agliarolo in the Italian capital he was supported by local Cosa Nostra "decinas", terrorists, and members of Banda della Magliana but he also had strong links with several politicians, freemasons, secret services agents, bishops and bankers. He was nicknamed "The Cashier" because he managed the most important financial business of the mafia. He was accused to be involved in some of the most obscure and mysterious mafia misdeeds, included the murders of journalist Pecorelli, the bankers Sindona and Calvi, the lawyer Ambrosoli, the judges Chinnici, Falcone and Borsellino, and the so called "904 train's slaughter" Carmine Pecorelli was murdered in Rome on Mars 20th 1979 according to the inquiries the reputed shooters were the "man of honour" Michelangelo La Barbera and the terrorist Massimo Carminati Pecorelli would be killed because Andreotti didn't like his articles about politics. Giorgio Ambrosoli was murdered in Milan on June 12th 1979 Roberto Calvi was hanged in London on June 18th 1982. Michele Sindona was poisoned inside Voghera prison on Mars 22nd 1985. Giuseppe Calò was arrested in Rome on May 31st 1985 he was surprised inside an elegant apartment together with "men of honour" Antonino Rotolo and Lorenzo Di Gesù. Keywords: arrested, mafia, terrorists, terrorist Original URL: http://gangste

Renato Borzone, a lawyer representing Carboni - one of the last people to see Calvi alive - rejected the charges. "The defence maintains that - based on examinations - Calvi committed suicide."	08/07/2016	Adverse Media	Summary: Roberto Calvi: found hanged in London Also charged were the Sicilian Mafia's jailed financial chief, Pippo Calo, and Ernesto Diotallevi, an Italian businessman. Keywords: N/A Original URL: http://www.teleg
